SUCCESS IS A BEAUTIFUL THING.

Business Etiquette,
Team Dynamics &
Cultural Intelligence Coach

I equip leaders, teams, and individuals with the essential skills, strategies, and support to be more professional and impactful in the boardroom, networking room, or dining room.

Productive, successful business relationships are built on personal confidence.

As an internationally sought-after expert with years of hands-on entrepreneurial experience, Margaret Page empowers audiences to discover and cultivate the qualities that will make them shine in the business world and beyond.

Margaret inspires personal discovery while offering practical solutions for common problems that prevent people from reaching their potential. She draws on her own deep experience as an entrepreneur, etiquette expert, business coach, and cultural intelligence pro to craft witty, relatable stories and engaging exercises. Margaret has inspired large audiences up to 10,000 to examine their own limiting beliefs, silence negative self-talk, and take action for the future.

She holds a number of business etiquette designations, including certification from the prestigious Protocol School of Washington, as well as master-level training in Neuro-Linguistic Programming and advance-level training in personal and business coaching.

Her dynamic and engaging trainings inspire audiences to develop their internal resources and satisfy their cultural curiosity:

- Navigating other cultures thoughtfully and intelligently
- Honing personal magnetism and social skills
- Fostering executive presence and gravitas
- Understanding team dynamics and communication styles

- Mastering etiquette both at home and abroad
- Cultivating leadership qualities
- Creating healthy practices for better work/life balance

Margaret is the author of The Power of Polite, Mapping Your Path, Blueprint for Success, the Finding Happy Planner, and the illustrated card set Cognito: Modern Wisdom for Dining and Social Etiquette. Her clients have included international organizations such as AstraZeneca, Hatch, Gowling WLG, Manulife, and more. She has appeared in: 570 News, Business News Network, CKNW News, CBC Radio, The Source, MACLEAN'S, GLocal BC, The Vancouver Sun, CTV, Vitamin Daily, SBN, Huffpost Business, The Province, Air Canada En Route, TV Guide, and Rock Star Radio.

Margaret founded her first company at 21 in her native Canada, eventually expanding her holdings to the United States. Her current businesses include Beyond the Page Coaching and Training and Westminster Property Management.

Empowering your team to develop their skills will transform their work relationships and performance forever.

Maximize Your Personal Impact

Research suggests that people decide within a tenth of a second whether you are trustworthy, likeable, and competent. Owning your first impression is the foundation for every rewarding introduction, business lunch, pitch, speaking opportunity, and personal interaction you'll ever have.

During speaker Margaret Page's celebrated "Maximize Your Personal Impact" session, you'll discover how to convey confidence and charisma from the very start. This results-driven presentation provides you with the tools you need to approach any corporate or social interaction with confidence and poise.

During "Maximize Your Personal Impact," you'll learn:

- How to make a powerful first impression
- What your handshake says about you
- How to dress professionally, no matter the situation
- Etiquette that telegraphs mastery and charm
- Body language that conveys authority and gravitas
- The do's and don'ts of business networking
- How to communicate effectively with anyone, anywhere

These easy-to-implement techniques will have powerful effects, both inside and out. You'll develop your own innate charisma, giving you the confidence to work a room — or a dinner table, or a Zoom call — like the leader you were born to be.

“

Success is not measured in the amount of dollars you make, but the amount of lives you impact.

Why event planners, businesses, and organizations love working with Margaret Page:

Knowledge takes a backseat to people with excellent interpersonal skills. It doesn't matter if you have a better proposal than your competition if your team can't sell it. Continued unprofessionalism and lack of confidence will slow your business growth and make talent look elsewhere. With Margaret's training, your organization will look more professional and win more business.

Actionable Takeaways from Margaret's Programs:
